HELP FOR THE POOR.

Many People Are Ready to Contribute.

But the Important Question of Systematic Giving is Overlooked by Many—Some Instances.

There are a great many poor and destitute in Decatur who must have help or they will perish. There are a great many people in Decatur who are ready and willing to contribute for the relief of the needy, enough indeed to supply every necessity that may arise if the giving were reduced to a system. The Bureau yesterday mentioned the plan adopted by some people in Decatur whose treasurer is Lucien L. Burrows, which as a system so far as the donations that pass through that channel are concerned. It is a business arrangement that ought to be adopted for the entire city. Political parties have no trouble in locating their voters in the city and enrolling them preparatory to a campaign, but it is done by a system. Four or five men, in doing this, do not cover the same territory, which would result in confusion and not in securing information. If some system were adopted to find out those who are needy, and that information was recorded in some central office, and contributions to relieve want were distributed from one common center, it would obviate the danger of piling up contributions in a few needy families and the total neglect of others equally as needy and as worthy.

An example of the danger of the lack of system is seen in the report of the swift relief that came to one family when turkeys and flour and other necessities were heaped upon the family, and another case where the mere mention in a newspaper that a family was in need of a stove nearly resulted in setting up the family in the stove business. While this commends the charitably disposed people it lacks the essential element of system.

In Oklahoma, a family needing clothing was supplied with cast off clothing, which was piled up in the corner of a room in a heap at least four feet high and in the entire lot there was not a garment that a single member of the family could wear. There were scores of other needy people who could have worn them had they had them, but the clothing was permitted to lie where it was left, no good to anybody. Just such cases as these could be multiplied almost into the hundreds. It shows the danger and loss in this giving without system. Unless some system is adopted that will properly apply the practical charity of our people, which is great enough to meet every case of destitution, there will be much wasted and many left without proper attention.

These are times when there is no necessity for exploiting the charity of individuals from the house tops. These are times when that magnificent maxim: "Let not thy left hand know what thy right hand doeth" ought to be applied through a system directed by a few practical business people and there ought to be a general public meeting free to all our people, and that meeting ought to adopt a plan to take care of Decatur's poor this winter. Such a meeting properly conducted could systematize distributions to the poor in two or three hours and the plan could be so arranged that every church or other organizations looking after the relief of want could pursue their plans and make their distributions through a central committee.

Junketing Conductors.

We have received a copy of the Rocky Mountain News, published at Denver, Colo. (Nov. 28, giving a three column illustrated write-up of the representatives of the Railway Conductors' Mutual Aid association, a jolly party of tourists now doing the West. There are 190 persons in the party. Horace A. Morgan, conductor of the Wabash Jacksonville-Decatur train, is with the tourists. Also his two sisters, Mrs. Alma Morgan Kinney and Mrs. George K. Morgan, and Conductor Dan Cameron. The News publishes a full-size picture of Horace, and puts a streamer in his hand on which is inscribed "34 years on the Wabash." The conductors will go as far west as San Francisco and Portland and will return by way of Denver to Chicago.

The First Sparrows.

The sparrow bounty season opened yesterday, December 1st, and this morning John Naco, 1441 East North street, and Clarence Cunningham, of 1507 East Eldorado street, were the first boys this season to cash a bounty. They delivered 21 sparrow heads this morning. First City Clerk Shelly has to fill out an order on the county clerk and he in turn on the county treasurer, who has to give the boys a check on the bank.

Reduced Their Wages.

The Wabash company has reduced the wages of the section men from $1.25 to $1.10. It is desired to reduce expenses on the middle division of the road $5,000 a month. A number of men have also been laid off.

Only Work Wanted.

The Democratic papers persist in placing us working men in a wrong light. They are always spouting about "cheaper clothing for the poor laboring men," etc., as though we were incompetent to judge for ourselves in the matter of clothing. They speak of us as a farmer would of his sheep—that they must be sheared at a certain time in order to give the best results. They might as well say that it is a crying shame that somebody don't see to it that we are properly shaved and have our hair cut at certain intervals.

"Cheaper clothes for the poor laboring men!" Hey, wouldn't that freeze you? Just go among some of those "poor laboring men" and see what kind of clothes they wear. You will find that our clothes are about as good as yours, and you never yet heard one of us kick on the price we had to pay. Many of us have our clothes made to order. If we don't care to pay so much, we can get a good-looking, neat and stylish-looking suit for from $12 to $15. Any of us who have steady work can save enough from our earnings in two weeks to buy a first-class suit, and you never hear us asking the dealer to throw in a pair of socks free. Clothing is cheap enough, and provisions are cheap enough. We are not kicking on what it costs us to live. If you want a good, substantial meal, one that will "put hair on your breast," just step into the home of your "poor laboring men" who has a job.

No, gentlemen, it is not the price. If you want to do something for the working man, something for your country, state and city, something that will cause St. Peter to put you on the back when you go up yonder, just give work to those of us who are out of work and looking for it. Do that, and we will take care of our own personal appearance, as we have done at all times when we had work. Remember, we don't have to buy a suit of clothes every day; but we have been taught from childhood to eat three square meals a day, to insure which we have spent several years learning different trades. Have the workshops and factories in which we were employed resume business, and we will all be prosperous once more. A great many of us need work badly; but we have clothes enough to last us a year longer, if necessary.

Reducing the tariff will not reduce the price of real estate. We cannot pay for our homes any faster if half of us are idle and the other half working at reduced wages, even if we could live on half the money it now requires. You might as well tell us that times would be better if half the money now in circulation were withdrawn so to tell us that a protective tariff is a hardship to us. If the Democrats did not believe that the tariff is a protection to the most vital interests of this country they would have taken it off entirely in every instance where they have reduced it. PAT LARSEN.

Death of Bertie Ferrell.

Miss Bertie Ferrell, daughter of Henry Ferrell, who resides on his farm, seven miles northwest of Decatur, died this morning of consumption. At the time of her death she was 20 years, 8 months and 14 days old. Her sickness has been a long one, as she was first taken down some 14 months ago, and during these long months she steadily wore away until death relieved her suffering. During her sickness she bore up patiently and was ready when the messenger came. The funeral will be from Boiling Springs church at 11 o'clock Sunday and will be conducted by Rev. Milners.

Probated.

Judge W. E. Nelson yesterday admitted the will of the late Jerome Anderson to probate in the county court. The testator wills the net proceeds of all his estate to his mother, Sarah Anderson, as long as she lives. At her death the estate is to be equally divided between his three sisters, Josephine, Livonia and Nancy M. Anderson. W. C. Oatman is named as his executor. The will was drawn July 24, 1889. The personal estate is valued at $5000. The value of the real estate exceeds many times the value of the personal property.

John Cassell Sick.

John Cassell, the father of Charles and Frank Cassell, is quite sick at Niantic, and in response to a message the boys went down last night and returned this morning. When they left the city, from what they knew of the father's malady, which is a serious bronchial affection, they did not expect his recovery, but during the night he became much better and now seems to be out of danger. Mr. Cassell is 64 years of age.

First Snow Blizzard.

This is a genuine wintry day, a combination of cutting east wind and snow. The snow began coming at 10:30 and it is still with us. Not enough to make sleighing, but it is sufficiently deep to cover the street car rails and interfere materially with the running of cars. The present indications are that there will be enough snow to bring out the cutters.

DEATH OF SARAH A. SIMMS.

She Passed Peacefully Away at 11:45 A. M.—Sketch of Her Life.

Mrs. Sarah A. Simms died at 11:45 o'clock this forenoon of pneumonia, at her residence, 341 East William street. At the time of her death she was nearly 73 years of age.

Mrs. Sarah A. Simms was well known to Decatur people and was loved by all who knew her. Her gentle disposition, her interest in all the affairs of the church and her devotion to the comfort of others won all hearts to her.

Her maiden name was Sarah A. Knox. She was born near Wheeling, West Va., January 17, 1820, and was the last survivor of her family—another sister, Mrs. E. S. Roe, who lived in this city, and who died several years ago, leaving Mrs. Simms the last survivor of the family. She was united in marriage to William M. Simms at Wheeling. They resided there some years and then came to Illinois, settling in Manchester, Scott county. In 1881 they removed to Decatur.

William M. Simms died two years ago last August. Four children were born to them—Mrs. William Cook, of Butler, Mo.; Mrs. Jesse Alfred, Manchester, Ill.; Mrs. James Caldwell, Farmington, Minn.; and Miss Anna B. Simms of this city. For her age Mrs. Simms was in many respects a remarkable woman. Though past 70 she was in her actions like a woman of 25 or 30, and so full of life that all the children who knew her did not think of her as being old. Last Sunday she attended church as usual, for she rarely ever failed to be in her pew, but was not feeling as well as usual. Her trouble was diagnosed as the grip, but it soon resulted in pneumonia, but at no time was she regarded as dangerously sick, and up to a short time before her death she conversed with those about her, concerning household affairs. Her death was unexpected at the time it occurred, but it was easy—she simply passed into the sleep of death, as an infant passes to natural sleep. Mrs. Simms has always been a member of church, and since she has resided in Decatur she has been a member of the First M. E. church. The time for the funeral has not yet been fixed.

The Dazzler Tuesday Night.
When a person is wearied and run down with multitudinous business cares, a good physician will recommend the putting away of all business cares and a change of scene. There is no better or safer way of following this good advice than to visit the opera house next Tuesday evening, and see Cosgrove and Grant's comedians in the "Dazzler."

The latest songs follow the merriest jokes and pretty faces and nimble heels, clever comedians and laughable situations all co-mingle to form a bright and entertaining farce comedy, which has grown stronger with each year of its existence, and forms one of the most enjoyable entertainments that will be seen here this season.

A NARROW Escape.

It has leaked out that while the pigeon shooting match was going on at the East Park Boulevard Thursday a crowd of boys and young men stood about the outskirts of the ground shooting the pigeons that got away. One of these young men was so eager to get pigeons that he forgot about the danger of his shots striking those who stood about him if he shot too low, and when a bird was flying near the ground he fired at it and the shot took the top out of the cap of another young man. That young man, when he realized how narrow an escape he made through the other's recklessness, got very mad, and justly, too, and would have wiped the ground with the fellow had not friends interfered.

A Pleasant Party.

Edith Carter, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. E. D. Carter, gave a peanut party at her residence, No. 153 West William street, yesterday afternoon from 2 to 6. The party was in honor of her friend, Margaret Pratt of Chicago. The invitations were sent out in peanut hulls tied together with dainty ribbons. Peanuts were in every nook and corner of the house. Miss Lou Durfee found the greatest number and received the prize. Supper was served for the guests at 5:30 o'clock. About 35 were present.

Burglars.

Burglars broke into the Race Clothing store Thursday evening by a rear window and after removing $2.10 from the cash drawer, took the little safe from the front window, which contained $20. The money was to be given away in a few days to the customer who had the key to open it. After taking all the cash he could get, he exchanged an old overcoat and a suit of clothes for a new one from off the shelf. There is no clue to the burglars, who evidently knew just what they were about.

Time Warrants Signed.

The mayor, yesterday, signed about $1,000 worth of time warrants authorized by the council to pay the contractors for the excess of the cost of three sewers, over the amount raised by assessment. This excess will come out of the general fund. Hereafter the council will not permit the confirmation of an assessment roll until they know that the assessments will fully meet the cost of the improvement.

Reception and Dinner Party.

Last evening Mr. and Mrs. F. M. Pratt gave a reception and dinner party at their elegant home on West Prairie avenue in honor of Mr. and Mrs. Eugene Pratt of Chicago, who are visiting here. The company numbered about fifty persons and they were delightfully entertained. An elegant dinner was served, the entire company being seated at once.

FOR THE HOLIDAYS.

Our different departments are full of nice new goods. We have made a special effort this year to show a line of Comparatively Inexpensive Novelties, suitable for a present for gentlemen. Of course, we always have everything new for the ladies, but it is a harder task for the Holiday purchaser to find suitable presents for gentlemen. This year we have made it possible for you to find at our store just what you want.

WATCHES.

We place on sale Monday One Hundred and Fifty Ladies' Watches, at $20.00 each. These goods are worth at any other season of the year $25.00, $27.00 and $30.00. We want your Holiday Money, and are prepared to give you the greatest value for it you ever heard of. We recognize this fact, We must offer Extra Inducements this year, in order to induce a liberal purchase of Holiday Goods, and have carried the greatest reductions in prices clear through our immense stock of Fine China, Dinner Sets and Fancy Pieces in China, as well as through our Diamond, Watch and Jewelry Departments.

DINNER WARE

Our lines of Dinner Sets in open stock and made-up sets is, as usual, the finest in the city, and embraces more patterns, more shapes, and prettier goods, than you will find elsewhere—Haviland's Celebrated Lines; also Austrian China. (We think we have the only line of Austrian China Dinner Sets in the city. All who visited the Austrian Exhibit at the World's Fair will be interested in these). Carlsbad China, English China and Porcelains.

We offer in low-priced sets the nicest, cleanest decoration in English goods you ever saw; no old chestnuts that have been "hawked" on the sidewalk as bargains for four years, but nice, new, clean patterns.

VISIT OUR SECOND FLOOR.

OUR IMPORTS.

Our Imports of Haviland are just in, and all are clean new patterns, (no old chipped samples that have been carried all through the United States in sample trunks), and they will please you better than anything in the city.

DIAMONDS.

If you have money to invest, you can do better with it in Diamonds just now than you have been able to for years. We have on hand $15,000 worth of Diamonds, and we will offer unusual bargains to purchasers in this Department.

SPECIALS.

To keep our shop running, we mounted up during the summer a line of Diamond Rings for Misses, which we will offer at $5.00 each. The loose stones cost this much to import, and they cannot be duplicated for $15.00 each.

We offer 200 Sterling Silver A. D. Coffee Spoons at 75c each. 200 at $1.00 each. 200 at $1.50 each. 500 Silk Umbrellas, with the best selection of handles we ever had.

A lot of Bamboo Fire Screens, Large Screens and Screen Frame, at a wonderfully low price.

COME EARLY. Our "Laid-away-till-Christmas" Cabinet is in running order, and many goods are being put aside every day.
